Cost

Before 2013-2015 fundraising efforts, the cost for a quad occupancy room is $885 per student or chaperone.

This is an increase of $26 from 2013.

Travel insurance is an additional cost and may be purchased at your discretion.

Chaperones

A safe trip full of positive memories is only possible through the assistance of parent chaperones. Chaperones are provided a double occupancy room at no additional cost and can choose to see their son or daughter as much (or as little) as they would like. Chaperones can also be assigned to different buses than their child. The trip can only occur if appropriate supervision is obtained.

Itinerary

A final itinerary is only available three (3) weeks prior to the trip due to last minute changes from the theme parks regarding performance dates, times, and locations.

Sign-Up

Students and chaperones should sign-up online using the details provided on the reverse side of this paper.

A first deposit of $100 is due on May 20, 2014.

Additional payments are due on August 29, October 13, and November 24*, with a final remaining balance payment on February 11*, 2015. An asterisk (*) denotes fundraising profit deductions from these installments.
